

World Crokinole Championship

Saturday June 4, 2011

Welcome from the Chair

Thank you for your participation in the World Crokinole Championship Tournament. We are always trying to make our tournament better so we value your input and feed back. This year we have worked on simplifying the rules, scoring, and tournament guidelines that will hopefully address some of your comments and concerns and make it clearer and easier for everyone to understand. The entire information package has been redone so make sure you take time and review every page thoroughly. Take special note of the following

- Damage & spinning disc rules, see section 4.1.10 and 4.1.11
- Adult and Recreational singles have been grouped into individual pools, there will be no A&B pools. See section #3 revised tournaments day schedule.
- Registration confirmations will no longer be sent out as categories are listed on the Tournament day schedule. If confirmation is required you can do so by e-mailing at wccregistration@hotmail.com
- Please register early as it helps to spread out the work load for our volunteers and you can avoid paying a late fee.

Please come and join the fun on June 4, 2011.
